

The following document is the license for certain VOLT software.

Section 1: What you can do.

1A	You can...	As long as...
1A	Create tutorials, “let’s play”s, and other video content containing VOLT software.	You do not claim that you made the software, or had anything to do with it’s development. You also must place the following credit somewhere in a prominent* place near your content: Program/Game used: {software name}, by VOLT/Conner Vieira (Other programs: https://v0lttech.com/programs.php, This software: {link}) Replace ‘[Program/Game]’ with either “Program” or “Game” depending on the software type. If you aren’t sure what type the software is, contact me at vieirast@icloud.com Replace {software name} with the name of the software used Replace {link} with a link to the program page on the VOLT website. (The link should start with: https://v0lttech.com) *clear and prominent place indicates that the credits must be placed someplace associated with the content where the consumer is highly likely to see them. (For example: at the top of a YouTube description, or a short message at the beginning of a YouTube video)
1B	Create an add-on, or a program that works in tandem with a VOLT program/game.	You make it very clear that the add-on/program is not developed nor endorsed by VOLT. You must also indicate what changes or modifications the add-on/program makes to the user experience, even if it is an indirect change. No add-ons/programs should contain advertisements, illegal content, or malware of any kind.

Section 2: What you can't do.

	You can't...	Even if...	Instead...
2A	Claim or imply in any way you helped create or design any part of a VOLT program/game.	You give some credit to VOLT.	Provide a link to the software's official page on the VOLT website.
2B	Distribute VOLT software from your website, server, or in person.	You give credit to VOLT.	Distribute the official link from the " https://v0lttech.com " server if you want to share a program/game with someone.
2C	Create or modify a license for a VOLT program/game.	You modify, remix, adapt, or build upon the program/game.	Contact vieirast@icloud.com if you wish to license a modified version of a VOLT program/game in order to work out the terms of this license.
2D	Imbed or run any VOLT games from your server, website, or system for others to use.	The game is run in an iframe or a similar system on the VOLT page.	Place a direct link to the official VOLT page of the game if you want to show it to your site users or friends.

Section 2: What VOLT reserves the right to do.

	We reserve the right to...	However, VOLT will...
3A	Have any content in any form removed and/or deleted that is associated with any VOLT software.	Accept appeals if you believe the request was unwarranted. This doesn't guarantee the content removal demand will be revoked however.
3B	Place any content directly or indirectly affected by a VOLT program/game anywhere on the VOLT site, or other VOLT controlled accounts.	Give the creator of the content credit. The creator can request to get it removed if they wish.
3C	Ban any user or group of users from using VOLT software, and from publishing any content affected directly or indirectly by any VOLT software.	Accept appeals if you believe the request was unwarranted. This doesn't guarantee the usage ban will be revoked.
3D	Change this license without notice.	Grant a pardon if a user understandably misses a license change, and fails to follow a newly created or adjusted term.
